Iiwaco doctor surrenders license to practice medicine in Washington

Surrender resulted from investigation of sexual misconduct and lack of narcotic record keeping

OLYMPIA — Pacific County physician Brandon Adams (MD00026765) surrendered his medical license in the state of Washington. He previously surrendered his federal registration to prescribe controlled substances. Adams is unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety due to a mental or physical condition.

In 2011, the Medical Quality Assurance Commission immediately suspended Adam's license for allegations of predatory sexual misconduct and failure to keep records of patients for whom he prescribed controlled substances. Following an investigation, the commission agreed to accept the license surrender, and ended all pending allegations and disciplinary complaints against him.

The Medical Quality Assurance Commission protects public health and safety by assuring the competency and quality of physicians and physician assistants. The commission establishes and monitors qualifications for licensure, and consistently enforces practice standards and professional conduct through discipline and continuing education.
